Evangelizing Belize, CA

January 2017

Police Service:

We held a special service for the Belmopan police on Sunday January the 8th. It was a powerful time and I was honored to preach for all these fine officers who lay there life on the line to protect the capitol and surrounding area. At the end there were five officers who professed to trust Jesus Christ after hearing the gospel that day! Glory to His name!

The above picture shows Josiah, Joseph, Joshua, Julia and me singing at the civic center for the police service. Amy was playing the piano in the back. The two officers in front of us are the same ones in our featured photo at the top. They are the Senior Superintendent of police and the Inspector of police for Belmopan Belize.

Special Visit:

The below picture shows Jeremy Estrema peaching to our Church. He was referred to me by a long time friend of mine and fellow missionary, James Greenwood to Argentina. Jeremy was also a missionary in Argentina for 9 years but now pastors in CO. He was a super blessing to us. Because he is fluent in Spanish it was great to have him speak to those in our church that can only speak Spanish. All the children here really enjoyed him. Our time was short but certainly blessed.

The below picture shows the Church children receiving gifts for the New Year.

Thank you for praying for the Lopez family. They are back with us again! We also have a new family coming. We are growing! PTL!

Campus Fruit:

After fifteen years of campus ministry in the States, there were a lot of students that I met. I just received an encouraging email from a student that I talked to years ago and decided to paste it below as some of you supported our campus ministry in the states and do so here:

Greg,

I know you don't know me but you had come onto West Chester University's campus in PA about 7 or 8 years ago.

I was a Believer at the time but your witness was a huge encouragement to me. Thank you for your boldness and faithfulness for the Lord.

I was youth pastoring for a few years and had sent down youth missions teams to Belize.

Small world! Praying for you and your family.

Peace in Him,

Adam
