

The Davis Family Evangelizing Belize, CA

January 2018

Police Cadets:

There were 200 police cadets that received their membership for the very first time. The Belmopan police, cadets and their parents were gathered for this occasion. It was held in the Capital of Belize and I was honored to be asked to preach at this event. Besides telling them to trust Christ Jesus, I spoke about the destruction of drugs and alcohol.

Sign From God:

The picture on the next page shows our new Church sign immediately after it was erected. The three boys, Josué, Caleb, and Joshua worked really hard to get the sticky super-glue like clay off every scoop. Everyone who reads the sign will see the most important part which reads, "Trust Jesus Christ by grace, not of works. Eph. 2:8-9"

Under His Wings:

The Lord is constantly protecting us but we do not always know all the instances. However, sometimes we get to see it up close. I was heading to preach one morning when the white truck in the picture crashed on my side of the highway. Just a small amount of time and I could have hit him head on. Thankfully the driver was ok. Thank you for your prayers!

In The Beginning:

We have been teaching through Genesis. Amy and our children have been preparing crafts to go along with what they are learning. After the lesson each child and teen completes their own craft.
