Immigration:

Thank you for your prayers for our work permit and immigration renewal. I am happy to report that we have been approved for another year. I know of a number of others that have been denied and many just end up stamping each month. Knowing this makes me feel extra appreciation for the Lord's favor and mercies. Please pray as the next anticipated approval should be our permanent residence. The immigration department is now working on 2015. I was told it should take about six months to reach the month we filed but that is just an estimation.

Church:

In the featured photo above is Mrs. Estrada who was delighted to receive clothes for baby Franklin. We have also had three new salvations in church. Jordan (Pictured above) was one of those who trusted Christ. He doesn't live near our church building but his grandparents do and when he visits them he comes faithfully. Praise God for the gospel!

Public Schools:

In the public schools here you can go in pray, speak about Christ and read the Bible for 45 minutes. A group from Child Evangelism Fellowship (CEF) was setting up meetings in the schools here. Amy had went to CEF training before we were married so she was familiar with the program. Vance and Wendy Sutherland are missionaries in Saint Vincent who are part of CEF. They spoke to our church youth one Sunday and the children really enjoyed their Bible lesson. Vance shared about being kind with our enemies which is something we always need to hear. We had a great time of fellowship which was refreshing for us all. Also, Mrs. Ruth from our church is a public school teacher who has asked us to come and speak at her school. Because of these two avenues we plan to go in weekly to the local schools. Please pray for these new outreaches.

Crafting:

Above is some of the completed ginger bread houses Amy made with the children at church. The best part is they can be eaten out of house and home afterwards. :-)

Georgia Southern University:

Roughly 90 plus young Christians gathered for a week of Bible School. I was honored to teach for 5 days and take them out to Georgia Southern University to evangelize. Brice was a freshmen student who trusted Jesus Christ at GSU. (photo below) We had a very profitable time and it was nice to be back to my old preaching field once again. Josiah was privileged to go and was a blessing as always.
