Evangelizing Belize, CA

April 2018

Public Schools:

Thank you for praying for this new outreach. We have started with the closest school to our church building. The featured photo shows one of our church kid's, Marcus helping Amy with a Bible verse we were teaching at the Government School. All went very well. We are excited about this opportunity to share Christ. We have scheduled every Tuesday at 9 AM so please consider praying for this every week.

Crafting:

To the right Amy is making a piñata with the children at church. We have a lot of birth days in April and will have a fun day to celebrate like we did last year. Please pray as this is a great time to invite parents that do not meet with our church and share the gospel with them.

Dignitaries:

Below is a photo of the Honorable John Saldivar. He runs the police headquarters where I preach weekly. Saldivar is the Area Representative for Cayo and the Minister of National Security.

Highway Havoc:

I had just said to Amy to be very cautious as drivers pass on blind curves here. Moments later a vehicle crossed on our side of the road and took out a telephone pole. I notified the police and prayed with the driver. Thankfully no one was seriously hurt!
