House Blessings:

In Belize people ask me to come to their new house to pray for a blessing over it. I'm not sure where this started but it is a great opportunity to witness and be a blessing at the same time. The featured photo is of police officer Clement Usher and his wife, Arla in their new house where we prayed. Officer Usher is a Special Patrol Unit officer (SPU). The next photo is of Barry Montero who works at the police headquarters. The final picture above is of Dean Flowers and his daughter in their new house. Dean was one of the first Belizians that helped us when we arrived in the capital by giving us a ride and we have become good friends.

Goodbyes:

We have had many of our church families move over the last two and a half years. Mainly the families end up moving because of struggles with employment. It is always a sad situation to see them leave. Now two faithful boys, José & Caleb DeDios are moving to Dangrega which is about one hour away. The picture to the right is when they helped me erect our church sign in January. Most of us end up sitting in the same seats and I will surely miss seeing them in theirs. José trusted Christ last year. We had them to our house before they left as seen in the photo below with their mom. Please pray for them and their parents salvation.

Special Prayer:

Junior is a boy in our church who lives next door to José & Caleb. He recently hurt his neck after sleeping one night. If he turns his neck he falls down. We are not sure what the problem is at this point but would ask that you pray for his restoration.
