The Davis Family Evangelizing Belize

POLICE:

In Belize there is a yearly ceremony for the opening of the Supreme Court. The police dress up in a special uniform that day. Every year I pray for them before they leave. This year there was a DOUBLE rainbow in front of where I was facing the police. On the top right hand corner of this photo to the right you can see part of the bow. What a blessing to see an be reminded of God's promise not to flood the earth again. The LGBTQ has been pushing to fast-track a law for sexual orientation here. The law also gives them the right to have you arrested just for saying anything against them. These police officers will be faced with this new law in the near future if it is not struck down. As of now it looks like it will be pushed through here. I would ask you to pray for this and continued prayer for the police ministry here. I have see many of these officers profess Christ. They have been faithful to come every time I came to preach. Many of them get out of their bunks early in the morn to attend.

POLICE CADETS:

I was asked to pray and sing for the first Police Cadet Program of the year. You may notice three boys in the picture to the right look familiar. Josiah, Joseph and Joshua are all now official Police Cadets and were drilling with Police Officer, Ical who is standing in the back. My boys and Julia sang with me and all the other children cadets really enjoyed it. They meet every Friday so please keep this event in you prayers as I will be going regular. I like the drills and discipline the children receive. This is just one local group but the program happens nationwide. There is also a summer week program of intense training; then once a year they have a training weekend camp with all police cadets gathering together from the entire country.

CITY PREACHING:

I was very blessed to be ask to preach by the City Councils office along with a few other ministers for a special event to help put Biblical principles first in the City of Belmopan. It was held publicly in one of the outdoor parks in the Capital. I spoke on the family and what the Bible tells us to help us parents raise godly children who are the cities future. There were government officials from the City and police present. It was a very blessed time!

Thank you again for all the prayers and support! We need you!!!

Yours Faithfully,
