The Davis Family Evangelizing Belize

NATIONAL SECURITY BUILDING:

Right after I gave a devotion at the National Security building in Belize, I begin to speak to a man in his early 30s. It was not too long into our conversation, when he began to tell me that he wanted to get back to "Living for the Lord." As I prayed for him, he was very remorseful, and began sobbing with tears running down his cheeks. Oh, what a joy in serving our great King!

The feature photo shows the past Chief of police, Commander, Daniel Iche who was surprised with a birthday cake from his former colleagues. He had to step down due to a stroke. I had requested prayers for him, and am happy to say that he is doing much better. Thanks for praying!

MEXICO:

We arrived in Mexico on January 5th. I am happy to report that we got our six months stamp to remain in Mexico! The downside is as soon as I cross the border, even for a few minutes, I will have to reapply again. This means it won't be feasible to cross every week into Belize like I had hoped but there is lots to do here for the Kingdom.

SCHOOL:

My children are enrolled in a Spanish school here. They are enjoying it. It definitely wasn't easy, but I do believe the Lord granted us favor very quickly. Furthermore, the following years should be a breeze now that they are in the system. They are loaded up with chick gospel tracks. Josiah found another Christian student with a strong testimony on the first day.

MALL:

The mall is my favorite place to pass out large amounts of gospel tracts. I haven't had any individuals refused them, and no issues with security guards preventing me unlike the US. I really miss one to one soul winning, being hindered due to the language barrier. Oh, for the gift of tongues and "O for a thousand tongues to sing my great Redeemer's praise."!

HEALTH:

I've had to increase my prednisone, so it doesn't look like my treatment helped as a was hoping it would. I would appreciate your prayers in this regards..

Thanks to all who pray and support us!

Yours faithfully,

The Greg Davis Family
